not like this

It's a mess.

But it's awesome.

And it's awesome-er
if you don't need to read every word of it

An illustration of an iceberg floating in the ocean. The top of the iceberg is visible above the water line, while the much larger, jagged portion is submerged below. The water is a deep blue, and the sky is white.

and still catch the essences of our collective unconciseness.

Why code?

Cuz it's a lot of emails.
